

Programme

Summer school will be composed of the presentations of the PhD candidates and the speeches given by the scholars.

SUMMER SCHOOL within the CEEPUS-Network

„Ethics and Politics in the European Context“:

“NATIONALISM AND POPULISM AS CHALLENGES FOR EUROPEAN UNITY”

13-22 September 2015, Wrocław, Poland

Sunday, September 13, 2015

18.00 Welcome dinner

Monday, 14 September

9.00 Welcome Speeches given by:

Prof. Dr. Adam Jezierski, Vice Rector of the University of Wrocław for research and international cooperation

Prof. Mag. Dr. Ingeborg Gabriel, Head of the Institute for Social Ethics, University of Vienna

Dr Piotr Sula, Vice director of the Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław

9.15 Prof. Mag. Dr. Ingeborg Gabriel: European Nationalisms and their ethical implications

10.45 Coffee break

11.00 Prof. Piero Ignazi (Università di Bologna): Europe: The new scapegoat of populist parties

12.30 Coffee break

12.45 Prof. Dr. Adam Chmielewski (Institute of Philosophy, University of Wrocław):

Nationalism – philosophical perspective

14.15 Lunch + Visiting museums of the University of Wrocław

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair : Prof. Mag. Dr. Ingeborg Gabriel)

16.00 Vladimir Abramović (University of Belgrade, Faculty of Philosophy): Mechanisms of populism exploitation and instrumentalisation – example of Yugoslavia in the 1980's.

17.00 Wojciech Ufel (Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław): Reason and Democracy: Ernesto Laclau and a Different Evaluation of Populism

18.00 Dinner

Tuesday, 15 September

9.00 doc. PhDr. Ladislav Cabada, Ph.D (Metropolitan University Prague): Populism as successful political strategy? The case of Czech party system

11.00 Svetlana Trbojevik and Natasha Bogoevska (The Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje, Faculty of Philosophy, Department of Social Work and Social Policy): Reforms of the Social Protection System in Multicultural Macedonia: Who are they targeting?

13.00 Lunch

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair: doc. PhDr. Ladislav Cabada, Dr Radu Preda)

14.30 Miloslav Slavik (Faculty of Theology in Košice, Catholic University of Ružomberok): Košice as model for European unity - against nationalism and populism

15.30 Orysa Bila (Ukrainian Catholic University in Lviv): Genealogy vs. Parrhesia: Michel Foucault's Case of Transforming the Political into the Ethical

16.30 Coffee break

16.45 Daria Otto (University of Vienna): What does it mean to be Roman and christian simultaneous? (distinction between the ideas of Eusebius of Caesarea and Ambrose of Milan)

18.00 Dinner

Wednesday, 16 September

09.00 Dr Sorina Cristina Soare (University of Florence): Populism and democracy: an open bet

10.30 Dr Monika Wichlacz (Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław): Identity construction – hybrids and diasporas

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair: Dr Sorina Cristina Soare)

12.00 Michał Banaś (Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław): Nationalism and Populism in the Programmes of Candidates in Presidential Elections of 2015 in Poland.

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Polish is fun - The School of Polish Language and Culture for Foreigners, University of Wrocław (Last year edition of Polish is fun)

19.00 Panel discussion (Karczma Piastów)

20.00 Official Dinner

Thursday, 17 September

9.00 Prof. Jan Sokol (Charles University in Prague): The European Idea of Nation

11.00 Dr Giorgia Bulli (University of Florence): Populism and the extreme right. The case of Casa Pound Italia

13.00 Lunch

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair: Dr Giorgia Bulli)

14.30 Bartosz Wujec, Kamil Pluta (Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław):

Identification, attitudes and election motives of Paweł Kukiz's electorate in presidential elections 2015.

15.30 Lydmyla Ivanyuk (University of Vienna): The Churches and the national identity in Ukraine

18.00 Dinner

Friday, 18 September

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair: Dr Radu Preda, Dr Piotr Sula)

9.00 Gabriel Mapulanga (University of Vienna): African Nationalism and its challenges: The Case of Zambia

11.00 Michaela Rušinová (Trnava University, Faculty of Philosophy and Arts): On Some Theoretical and Practical Consequences of Perceptual Relativism

13.00 Lunch

14.30 Oana Ștefan (Faculty of Political Science, University of Bucharest): The Scottish referendum, relative impact of populist nationalism in modern-day Europe

16.30 Zhanna Mylogorodska (Leipzig University): PEGIDA in Saxony

18.00 Dinner

Saturday, 19 September

Museum Gross-Rosen (<http://en.gross-rosen.eu>) and Castle Książ (<http://www.en.ksiaz.walbrzych.pl>)

Sunday, 20 September

Panorama Raclawicka (<http://www.panoramaraclawicka.pl/?lang=en>) and guided tour in Wrocław

Monday, 21 September

9.00 Dr. Piotr Sula: Populism of political parties in Hungary and Poland

Panel with PhD candidates papers (Chair: Dr Maciej Herbut)

10.30 Tetiana Toma (Faculty of Political Science, University of Bucharest): The rights of the minorities in Ukraine – between the European aspiration and the anachronistic nationalism

11.45 Mihai Avram (Faculty of Political Science, University of Bucharest): Impediments in building national identity awareness a case study of the situation of the Romanian minority in the Timoc Valley, Serbia

13.00 Lunch

15.00 Movie and discussion about problems with radical movements in CEE countries arranged at the Regional Centre for International Debate.

18.00 Dinner

Tuesday, 22 September

Departure